Organisers of the Racing & Betting Forum are launching the Innovation Awards for 2016

RBFForum organisers introduce the Innovation Award to recognise companies and teams that have developed in an exemplary manner an innovative product, service or process with a high potential to increase sales or improve the efficiency and visibility of a concept.

It is an ideal platform to gain industry exposure for the most important innovations in the past months

The RBFForum Innovation Jury will work on applications during summer and appoint winners during the Racing & Betting Forum 2016 in Paris on 30 September.

The three best rated innovations will be honoured with a trophy at the RBFForum and a demonstration during the event.

The competition is open until 30 April 2016

Rules of procedure and application forms are on the dedicated web site <http://www.rbforum.net/RBFAwards/index.html>
